Welcome to Part 5 of the Stylecraft Cablemagoria Blanket Knit Along designed for us by Stuart Hillard. Available in five colourways, the blanket can be made in Special Aran, Highland Heathers Aran and Grace.

We have reached the final part of the KAL, Part 5! This part will show you how to do the last panel and the joining to complete your cosy cabled blanket. Let's begin!

Part 5 will focus on a Wide Lattice. You will need to make 2 panels using stitches C4B, C4L and C4R. Don't worry if you are not familiar with these techniques, they are explained in step-by-step pictures later.

We have set out at the beginning of Part 5 which colour yarn and equipment you will need. We always repeat abbreviations at the beginning of each pattern. The step-by-step images within the pattern have been shown in Ocean, using Special Aran. The completed panels in the other four colourways are shown at the end of the pattern.

For general hints and tips please see the Getting Ready document which can be found here:

The 5 different panels when joined together create a blanket of the following size depending on the yarn you chose:

Special Aran: Approx width 120cm x length 140cm (47½in x 55in)

Grace: Approx width 114cm x length 140cm (45in x 55in)

Highland Heathers Aran: Approx width 126cm x length 140cm (49¾in x 55in)

Enjoy your finished blanket.

Wide Lattice

This is a cable classic and very much in the Celtic tradition... there's more to think about in this final instalment, more twists, more turns and your knit and purl stitches change positions as you knit but by now the cable needle is your friend, C4B is lingo you understand and the end is in sight! Keep going!

Making up your blanket

Block all of your cable panels by laying clean damp tea-towels over them and leaving overnight. Weave in the cast on, cast off and joining ends.

Use a 3–3.5mm crochet hook and contrast joining yarn. Use small clips to hold the right side edges of two bands you wish to join... make sure top and bottom edges are neatly aligned. Work double crochets evenly into band 1 and band two to join them.

Work double crochets evenly down both outer sides to complete your blanket. Weave in all ends
